This Week, I have finished the project SJDP with Huihua Guan.

And I have finished my translation for my thesis...Oh, I have translated this for two mouths, and finally I have finished 15000+ English words translation...I have finished it! I have finished it! I have finished it!

Next Week, I will finish my thesis!

And if I have time, I do believe that I could finish the Visual System, which will be used in my thesis. This is the prototype:.....
